

The Supreme Court has invalidated the State Bank of India's electoral bonds scheme, indicating that the scheme is unconstitutional.

InterDigital files patent infringement case against OPPO: Delhi HC orders OPPO, interim deposit and imposes INR 5,00,000/- cost for delaying proceedings in case of Interdigital technology corp. & ors. vs. Guangdong OPPO mobile Ltd. & ors.

Justice Prathiba M. Singh's two-volume book on Patent Law was launched by Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman.

MakeMyTrip filed a Special leave petition against Google for allegedly allowing Booking.com to use its trademark as a Google Ad-word. The Supreme Court ruled in favor of Booking.com, stating no trademark infringement due to lack of confusion.

Booking.com

The Ministry of Home Affairs has announced the implementation of the Citizenship Amendment Rules 2024, facilitating the execution of the Citizenship Amendment Act (CAA).

Patanjali Ayurved apologized to the Supreme Court for misleading ads about its medicines. The court had directed Baba Ramdev and Acharya Balkrishna to appear on 2 April for not responding to a contempt notice

Reliance Industries Ltd's subsidiary, Viacom 18, obtained relief from the Delhi High Court regarding the prohibition of unauthorised streaming of IPL matches by several websites.